

Exemption Request

Border Restrictions Direction – Version 2

Interstate locum, temporary, and permanent medical officers seeking to enter Queensland from interstate to undertake work in a Queensland public health facility require an exemption from the Border restrictions Directions granted by the Queensland Chief Health Officer for each occasion of entry into the state.

When granting an exemption the Queensland Chief Health officer will require a person to quarantine for 14 days on arrival in Queensland if in the 14 days preceding their arrival they have:

- been in a COVID-19 hotspot
- had contact with a confirmed COVID-19 case
- COVID-19 or have had symptoms consistent with COVID-19.

Once approved, the medical officer will be required to complete a border declaration at:
